Nursing Scholarships

A career in nursing offers intellectual challenges, the use of science and technology, a multi-disciplinary approach to healthcare, a variety of work opportunities, career progression, security, and the chance to make a difference in life.

The Nursing Careers Program sponsored by McLaren-Flint has been developed to address an increased need for qualified nurses and to invest in our community by providing career opportunities, which will support the local healthcare system. This program financially helps individuals that want to make nursing their career of choice.

The Following Scholarships are Available Through the Nursing Careers Program:

Nursing School Senior (awarded to an individual who is not currently a McLaren-Flint employee)
$4,000 lump sum given to seniors within one year of graduating to apply toward the cost of completing the nursing program. 18 month work commitment required.

McLaren-Flint Nursing School Senior
$4,000 lump sum given to seniors within one year of graduating to apply toward the cost of completing the nursing program. 18 month work commitment required.

McLaren-Flint Career Ladder
$8,000 given over 2 years to complete an associates degree in nursing. Three year work commitment required. Eligibility includes: current McLaren-Flint employee in good standing, completion of pre-requisites with a minimum GPA of 3.0 or higher and admission to a nursing program.

McLaren-Flint MSN Completion
$5,000 lump sum given to a current McLaren-Flint registered nurse to complete an MSN program. Two year work commitment required. The award is given within one year of graduation to apply toward the cost of completing the program.

McLaren-Flint BSN Completion
$5,000 lump sum given to a current McLaren-Flint registered nurse to complete a BSN program. Two year work commitment required. The award is given within one year of graduation to apply toward the cost of completing the program.

Selection Process Includes:
GPA, review of clinical recommendations and clinical history, review of previous work history and interview by the Scholarship Committee.

Note: For current McLaren-Flint employees, additional qualification items to be reviewed will include attendance records and evaluations. Existence of any corrective actions will be grounds for disqualification. Discussion with current manager and interview with Scholarship Committee will be required.
